

FINANCIAL REALITY OF HOSPITAL WATER CONSUMPTION

Large hospitals consumed

133 billion gallons

= $615 million in water expenditures

Large hospitals in the Midwest reported the highest use of water

76 gallons per square foot

The average large hospital used

43.6 gallons of water

$202,200 per building

*Statistics from the 2007 CBECS Survey - U.S. Energy Information Administration
All figures are based on a yearly scale